2010 1st place winner in the State of Illinois Post Newsletter Contest

Commander's Message By: William J. Smith

Happenings!

Lots of things will be happening in the next week as well as in March, April and May. I'd like to spell them out here so everyone has fresh information:

In February we will have the Election of Corporate Board of Directors. Five positions will be filled.

March is the Department Oratorical Contest which will take place on March 5th. There are no contestants from our post who are participating but there may be someone in the District who will take part.

The Four Chaplin's Ceremony will take place March 12, 2011. If you've never seen it, come and watch.

The Calendar Meeting for next year will take place on March 21, 2011 directly before the Executive Board meeting. If this affects you be alert for more information.

The St. Patrick's Day Feast will be on Wednesday, March 16, 2011. Try to make it and see how much you can eat!

On April 9th we will have a Public Initiation which we haven't had in some time. This is a wonderful ceremony for all new members and it's only done once every few years. If you've never seen one show up, they're one of a kind.

Eggstravaganza, in conjunction with the Park District, will happen on April 22nd as part of the Easter weekend. If you have kids or grand kids you need to come and bring them. See Jerry Weaver for details.

Easter is on April 24, 2011.

Second Calendar Meeting (if necessary) will be on April 25, 2011.

March, 2011

In May we have the Kentucky Derby Hoopla on May 7, 2011.

Rifle Squad Elections will be May 12, 2011.

POPPY DAYS are May 19 through May 21, 2011. More to follow.

Election of Post officers is on May 26, 2011.

Memorial Day Parade and Celebration is May 29, 2011.

Memorial Day is May 30, 2011.

William J. Smith
Post Commander

The Chaplain's Corner

My wife, Lill, is my Guest Columnist today . . . she recently read a very inspirational book and would like to share some thoughts from it with you

First of all, it's about an ageless man names 'Jones' - not 'Mr. Jones', but just plain 'Jones'! He seemed to turn up in different places at different times in the small town where this story takes place. Jones became an inspirational guide to whomever he came in contact with, showing these people how various events could have a lasting effect on their lives, all depending upon their 'perspective'.

He advocated reading books, especially biographies and autobiographies about famous people from the past and the affect they had on others through their 'perspective'.

One interesting tidbit was a story he told about a lady who said her husband had requested that a fork be buried with him when he died. When she had asked him why, he told her that his mother after having served a huge holiday dinner, would clear the dishes and tell everyone to keep their forks because "the best is yet to come".

I guess sometimes a person just needs a little different 'perspective' on how they perceive things. I highly recommend this book, which is entitled "The Noticer" and was authored by Andy Andrews.

I think we should all look forward to the best that is yet to come, don't you?

In His service, Chaplain Phil
