Commander's Message By: Mathew Ingram

Post 134 Members,

November is a busy month and we kick it off with our Veteran's Day Celebration on Saturday November 5th in which PC Trumbull and Jr. Vice Lampert will be doing the cooking. The dinner events are designed to build camaraderie so I encourage you all to participate! November 6th is the Veterans Day Parade, we will be marching from the Post to the Morton Grove Library where we will have a short ceremony. Please stop and participate in the parade and ceremony so that we can honor our fallen comrades and keep fresh in the public's memory the sacrifices that each and every one of us made to keep this country great. And last but not least, be sure to stop by the Post on Thanksgiving Day to meet the Navy recruits from Great Lakes and to show them that we appreciate the fact that they are away from their families during the Holidays and the sacrifices they are making. Casey Bachara and his committee has done a great job in putting the event together and the least we can do is show up and say hello to a few future sailors.

Happy Birthday to all the Marines.

Still Serving America,
Mathew Ingram

MILITARY FAMILY SUPPORT FUND

We need volunteers to solicit for our Military Family Support Fund. We will solicit in Morton Grove on Saturday, November 12, 2011 from 6:00 am to 6:00 pm. Please contact Joe Lampert (847) 417-8672 or PC Ken Trumbull (847) 663-0539 to volunteer.

November, 2011

On Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 24, 2011, Post 134 will be sponsoring their 5th annual Thanksgiving Dinner for the Navy Recruits. If you can stop by to say hello to the Navy Recruits sometime during the day, it would be nice. We had a large crowd last year.

Also, anyone wanting to volunteer or donate/bake something for the sweet table, it would be greatly appreciated. If you want to drop off your sweets a day or two early the Post will be open from 3:30-8 p.m. Thanksgiving Day will run from approximately 9 am to 4 pm. Club 134, upstairs, will be open from noon 6 pm.

If you have any questions call: Casey Bachara (847) 299 3613 or Joe Gesicki (847) 966 4889.

If you wish to make a donation towards this worthy event, please make checks payable to
Thanksgiving Committee,
American Legion Post 134.

Everything is on schedule and we're all looking forward to this event.

Happy New Year
